SEA SUNDAY: An ecumenical celebration of Sea Sunday will take place outside St Julian's Church, Tenby THIS Sunday 21st July at 3.00pm. All are welcome. There will be a collection for the Apostleship of the Sea at all Masses on this Sunday.

THE YEAR OF JUBILEE 2025: The Holy Father has decided that 2025 will be a year of Jubilee, something which happens every 25 years. The theme is "Pilgrims of Hope", and it will be a year of hope for a world suffering the impacts of war, the ongoing effects of COVID-19 pandemic, and a climate crisis. This year, 2024, is a preparatory year of prayer for the Jubilee Year, and the Bishops' Conference of England and Wales have produced resources for this preparatory year of prayer, focusing on the Our Father, as well as resources about Jubilee in the Catholic Church. For use by parishes, priests, religious, laypeople, and more, these resources will help guide you as you ready yourself for this most vital year in the Church's life.

<https://www.cbcew.org.uk/jubilee-2025/> What is a Jubilee? The Jubilee Year is a time to re-establish a proper relationship with God, with one another, and with all of creation. In the late autumn we shall be using the We Dare To Say resource for a faith-sharing group on The Lord's Prayer structured over five weeks leading up to the season of Advent.

UNIFICATION OF MENEVIA AND CARDIFF: Archbishop Mark O'Toole is very grateful to all who took part in the Listening Process. He has now sent a dossier based on the information gathered to the Papal Nuncio who will forward it to the Holy Father, Pope Francis in Rome. The full dossier will be released in September. Summary statistics on the straw polling that was taken about unification, together with a synopsis of the themes that emerged through the 'conversations in the Spirit' can be found on the parish website.

PILGRIMAGE TO FATIMA: 11th – 15th October 2024. It is not too late to join this pilgrimage. Please contact Fr Mansel for details.

EVANGELIUM: A course in the Catholic Faith based on the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Every Monday (except 1st Mondays) from 6.30pm in the hall. All welcome.

Jeremiah 23:1-6 ·

'Doom for the shepherds who allow the flock of my pasture to be destroyed and scattered – it is the Lord who speaks! This, therefore, is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says about the shepherds in charge of my people: You have let my flock be scattered and go wandering and have not taken care of them.

Right, I will take care of you for your misdeeds – it is the Lord who speaks! But the remnant of my flock I myself will gather from all the countries where I have dispersed them, and will bring them back to their pastures: they shall be fruitful and increase in numbers. I will raise up shepherds to look after them and pasture them; no fear, no terror for them any more; not one shall be lost – it is the Lord who speaks!

'See, the days are coming – it is the Lord who speaks – when I will raise a virtuous Branch for David, who will reign as true king and be wise, practising honesty and integrity in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel dwell in confidence. And this is the name he will be called: The-Lord-our-integrity.'

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 22(23)

The Lord is my shepherd: there is nothing I shall want.

The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
where he gives me repose.
Near restful waters he leads me,
to revive my drooping spirit.

The Lord is my shepherd: there is nothing I shall want.

He guides me along the right path;
he is true to his name.
If I should walk in the valley of darkness
no evil would I fear.
You are there with your crook and your staff;
with these you give me comfort.

The Lord is my shepherd: there is nothing I shall want.

You have prepared a banquet for me
in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil;
my cup is overflowing.

The Lord is my shepherd: there is nothing I shall want.

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me
all the days of my life.

In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever.

The Lord is my shepherd: there is nothing I shall want.

Second reading

Ephesians 2:13-18 ·

In Christ Jesus, you that used to be so far apart from us have been brought very close, by the blood of Christ. For he is the peace between us, and has made the two into one and broken down the barrier which used to keep them apart, actually destroying in his own person the hostility caused by the rules and decrees of the Law. This was to create one single New Man in himself out of the two of them and by restoring peace through the cross, to unite them both in a single Body and reconcile them with God: in his own person he killed the hostility. Later he came to bring the good news of peace, peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near at hand. Through him, both of us have in the one Spirit our way to come to the Father.

Gospel Acclamation

Jn10:27

Alleluia, alleluia!

The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice,
says the Lord,
I know them and they follow me.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 6:30-34

The apostles rejoined Jesus and told him all they had done and taught. Then he said to them, 'You must come away to some lonely place all by yourselves and rest for a while'; for there were so many coming and going that the apostles had no time even to eat. So they went off in a boat to a lonely place where they could be by themselves. But people saw them going, and many could guess where; and from every town they all hurried to the place on foot and reached it before them. So as he stepped ashore he saw a large crowd; and he took pity on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he set himself to teach them at some length.

Communion Antiphon

Rv 3: 20

Behold, I stand at the door and knock, says the Lord.
If anyone hears my voice and opens the door to me,
I will enter his house and dine with him, and he with me.
